"SEEING RED"

A Universal Two Reel Western with

Billy Sullivan

(One of the 'Battling Cowboy' Series)

Billy Regan arrives in Norrisville's leading 'soft' drink emporium and refuses to drink the wine which the bartender substitutes for sarsaparilla. Two tough fellows near him ask him if he doesn't want a bottle. Billy knocks one of them down, and before the other one can pull his gun high enough to shoot, Billy whips it out of his hand.

Mark Norris, a wealthy rancher sees all this and offers Billy a job, which he refuses until he sees a girl who addresses Norris as "father". He changes his mind immediately, and is ordered to find Norris' son who has stolen from his father and gambled it all away.

The girl insists on following Billy, but he refuses to take her with. After riding a time, he comes to a cabin in the forest, in which are the men who had taunted Billy, and young Norris. The girl overtakes him, and explains that young Norris is her husband/. Billy is stunned, but decides to stay and help her.

Under cover of night, he slips into the cabin, takes the guns from the sleeping men, and cuts the rope which binds the lad. As the two step out of the cabin, the girl becomes frightened, and fires the gun. The men awaken, but only their leader has a gun. He is shot by Young Norris... And on the following day, Billy leaves, seeking new adventures.
